

Thine is the love, Lord, that draws us together

(EPIPHANY HYMN. 11.10.11.10. DACTYLIC)

$\text{♩} = 94$

1. Thine is the love, Lord, that draws us to - geth - er,
 2. Faith - ful Thy grace o'er our path - way has wait - ed,
 3. For us, Lord Je - sus, Thy - self Thou hast giv - en ;

Guid - ing our steps from the wil - der - ness ways ;
 Deep the de - light we have found, Lord, in Thee ;
 Suffer - ings un - fath - omed for us Thou hast known ;

Soon face to face we'll a - dore Thee for ev - er,
 Now with this treas - ure our spi - rits are freight - ed,
 Now, in ac - cord with the hom - age of heav - en,

Now our glad hearts would be filled with Thy praise.
 Bowed at Thy feet, and the fra - grance set free.
 Ri - ses a song from the hearts of Thine own.

4. Jesus, Lord Jesus, we love and adore Thee,
 Glorious Thy Name, all our praises above ;
 Peerless Thy beauty, we worship before Thee ;
 Hushed are our spirits, at rest in Thy love.
