

William John Blew (1808-1894)

Arthur Henry Dyke Troyte (1811-1857)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. A shame - ful death He dies, Up - lift - ed
 2. Full was the cup of woe ; In death His
 3. O come my soul, and gaze On that great with trans - gres - sors twain, The Lamb for thorn - crowned head de - clined ; « 'Tis done, » He grief, that crown of thorn : See there, in sa - cri - fice, By sin - ners slain.

 cried, and then His soul re - signed.
 deep a - maze, Thy sen - tence borne.

4. To Thee, O Saviour Lord,
 Who washed in blood our sins away,
 Our boundless gratitude
 Its thanks would pay.

Alternate Tunes : Alban's, 37 ; Lischer, 130.