1. From the pa-lace of His glo - ry, From the home of joy and love,
 2. There from that e - ter - nal bright-ness Have His thoughts flowed forth in love ;
 3. Trembl-ing, we had hoped for mer-cy — Some lone place with - in the door ;

Came the Lord Him - self to seek us ; He would have us there a-bove.
 He in His great love would have us Ev - er there with Him a-bove.
 But the crown, the throne, the man-sion All were pur - posed long be-fore.

4. And in past and distant ages,
 In those courts so bright and fair,
 Ere we were, was He rejoicing,
 All He won with us to share.
