1. Have I an ob - ject, Lord, be - low,
 2. Have I a hope, how - e - ver dear,
 3. Be Thou the ob - ject bright and fair

Which would di - vide my heart from Thee ;
 Which would de - fer Thy com - ing, Lord,
 To fill and sat - is - fy the heart ;

Which would di - vert its e - ven Which would de - tain my spi - rit My hope to meet Thee in the flow In an - swer to Thy con - stan - here, Where nought can last - ing joy af - air, And nev - er - more from Thee to cy ? Oh, teach me quick - ly to re - turn, And cause my ford ? From it, my Sav - iour, set me free To look and part ; That I may un - dis - tract - ed be To fol - low, heart a - fresh to burn ! Oh, teach me quick-ly to re-long and wait for Thee. From it, my Sav-iour, set me serve, and wait for Thee. That I may un - dis - tract - ed turn, And cause my heart a - fresh to burn ! free To look and long and wait for Thee.

 be To fol - low, serve, and wait for Thee.
